

Hey there (Married couples name)!

It's probably pretty weird reading that isn't it? Hope you two had a fun time on your honeymoon! I was super jealous of all those fun pictures you posted, man you really have me craving a mixed drink and a beach right now. But enough of me chatting away... What you really opened this email for.

YOUR WEDDING PHOTOS ARE FINISHED!

cue the balloon drop, light the sparklers, spin the noise makers, dance to some Taylor Swift

I can't even explain how much fun I had photographing your wedding day, I want to re-live it all over again just so I can break it down on the dance floor with your guest and steal an extra piece of your wedding cake. You two were such a dream couple to work with, I wish all my clients could be as awesome as you are.

Now, here's the nitty gritty:

Here's your password - (password)

This gallery will be up for (insert time frame)

To order prints just add them to your cart and checkout (Change this to your fit your ordering procedures)

I hope these photos bring you as much joy as the joy you had on your wedding day. The happiness was almost tangible.

As Taylor Swift once said, "Hold on to the memories, they will hold onto you." I have a feeling you're going to like these memories.

Thank you again for letting me be part of your wedding day,

(Name & signature)